

Jesus told stories called parables to help people know God.

