

SUGGESTED FAMILY ACTIVITIES

Simon Says

- Have your child stand in front of you.
- Say a command starting with the phrase "Simon Says"
 - ex. "Simon says, touch your toes"
- Randomly say a statement without saying simon says- if your child does the command they are "out"
- This game is a good way to talk with your child about the law and how Jesus came to fulfil the law and how we are called to be obedient to Christ

Find the New Testament/ Old Testament

- Have your child find their bible
- Have them hold the bible closed. The parent will say either the old testament or new testament and say GO. Then race to find whatever you said.
- You can time them and see how quickly they can find them

Craft Option

- Use two pieces of paper and cut them into tablets to make the 10 Commandments
- Your child can decorate the tablets and talk about how Jesus came to fulfill the law

Snack Option

- You can get whatever you have
- Take the time while they eat to go over the bible verse for this month
